

DOO/COOs virtual network

11 May 2021

10:30 - 13:00, hosted on zoom

Agenda:

10:15 - 10:30

1. Registration

The event platform will be available from 10:15, and delegates are encouraged to join the waiting room during this window, to enable the event to start promptly at 10:30.

10:30 - 10:35

2. Chair's welcome and introductions

Deborah Needham, CEO, Kettering General Hospital NHS FT

10:35 – 11:15

3. Mental health and Covid-19: Past, present, and future

This session is expected to cover current and future projections for mental health demand, the interface between mental health and acute services, NHSE/I priorities for mental health services in the coming years and an update on the mental health workstream from the clinical review of standards.

Tim Kendall, national clinical director for mental health, NHS E/I

11:15 – 11:20

4. 5-minute comfort break

11:20 – 12:00

5. Covid-19 recovery and resilience: what can health and care learn from other disasters?

While Covid-19 can feel like an entirely unique event, there are parallels with and lessons to be learned from other disasters from the past 20 years. The King's Fund will join us to present a session on their research into this area, with a particular focus on their findings on personal resilience, and the role the health and care system can play in the recovery from Covid-19 in the long term.

Julia Cream, fellow, policy, King's Fund

12:00 – 12:05

6. 5-minute comfort break

12:05 – 12:55

7. Strategic policy update

A presentation from NHS Providers' on strategic policy issues and developments, followed by an opportunity for Q&A.

Amber Jabbal, head of policy and strategy, NHS Providers

12:55 – 13:00

8. Closing comments

Deborah Needham, CEO, Kettering General Hospital NHS FT