

27 June 2024

#chairsceos

10:00 – 13:00, hosted on MS Teams

Agenda

9:45 - 10:00

Waiting room available to join

The event platform will be available from 9:45, and delegates are encouraged to join the waiting room during this window, to enable the event to start promptly at 10:00.

10:00 – 10:05

1. Welcome and introductions

Mary Elford, Chair, Cambridgeshire Community Services NHS Trust

10:05 – 11:10

2. Strategic policy update

A presentation from NHS Providers on strategic policy issues and developments, sharing analysis on what these may mean for the provider sector, followed by an opportunity for Q&A.

Sir Julian Hartley, Chief Executive, NHS Providers

Saffron Cordery, Deputy Chief Executive, NHS Providers

11:10 – 11:20

3. Ten-minute comfort break

11:20 – 12:05

4. Future of the NHS

Paul Corrigan CBE, former health policy adviser to Tony Blair and director of strategy at the London Strategic Health Authority, will share his insights on the political landscape and the future of the NHS. Drawing on his extensive experience, Paul will discuss the challenges and opportunities ahead for health and care followed by Q&A.

Paul Corrigan CBE, Chair, Care City

12:05 – 12:10

5. Five-minute comfort break

12:10 – 12:55

6. Embedding Improvement: Involving and Supporting the Workforce in Challenging Times

This session will allow delegates an opportunity to engage directly with Dr Navina Evans and Dr Amar Shah, as members try to contextualise the long-term workforce plan alongside an improvement approach, and what this means for trusts in the short, medium and long-term. There are aspects of the long-term workforce plan, particularly regarding staff retention, which are within trusts' power to enact, and are therefore beneficial for our members to focus on now. Navina and Amar will lead a discussion on how embedding a culture of continuous improvement in an organisation can act as a key enabler in this, to help empower and support the workforce by giving the tools, rigour and structure to improve day-to-day work. With the potential to positively impact equality, diversity and inclusion, productivity, and the quality and safety of services, the panel will share their reflections on what is needed from Chairs and CEOs to link and progress these agendas at board level.

Dr Navina Evans, Chief Workforce Officer, NHS England

Dr Amar Shah, Consultant Forensic Psychiatrist and Chief Quality Officer at East London NHS Foundation Trust (ELFT) and National Clinical Director for Improvement, NHS England

12:55 – 13:00

7. Closing comments

Mary Elford, Chair, Cambridgeshire Community Services NHS Trust